In Tainui and Taranaki lore, it was Tāwhaki-Nui-a Hema who climbed 'Te Toi Huarewa' - a sacred vine leading to Te Toi o Ngā Rangi (the heavens above in pursuit of the three baskets of knowledge Te Uru Tau, Te Uru Rangi and Te Uru Matua . Before Tāwhaki made his ascent, he recited the following incantation to give him strength.....

"Tāpiki-nuku, Tāpiki waho, Tāpiki-te-aweawe o Tāwhaki."
